study

Journalism students attend a taping of a local TV show ... four students present a play for their classmates ... ideology students debate today's problems ... students in Senior Social Studies Seminar do research, sometimes formulating answers to pressing questions.

Student participation and individual study are new trends developing at Oak Hills. Better teaching methods are being discovered, presented, and utilized. As new ideas become a reality, academics are increasing in relevance to the student.

grid men end season with 6-4 record

With a disappointing opening loss, the Oak Hills gridmen got off to a shaky start for the 1969 season. After picking up two easy wins, the Highlanders lost a strategic game to Harrison, and fell to league arch-rivals Colerain and Wyoming. Then, at a well-supported Homecoming contest, the Oak Hills grid squad romped over Anderson. This win put the Scots on their feet, and, led by co-captains John Price and Bill Moores, Coach Rutenschroer's determined men went on to win their last three games. The victory drive, highlighted by the performances of Bill Moores, Tom Bolser, and Larry Heitfeld, came too late to keep Oak Hills in sight of the league title. The Scots carried home third place league honors, ending the season with a six and four overall record.

a Greg Francis quenches a monumental thirst. b. The Highlanders come charging onto the field. c. Oak Hills attempts extra point. d. Joe Hoff is pursued by Hughes defense

The tardy success of the Scots was due to the inexperience of the squad, but once tested in play, the team developed a fine defense and a lethal offense, both powering the "Scot Machine" to its final victory run. On top in grid fray were linebacker Tom Bolser and defensive back Bill Moores, both named to the HCAA All-Star team, plus eleven other exceptional Highlander players who received honorable mention for their efforts. Coming from behind in mid-season, this superb team united to bring Oak Hills another winning football season.

a. Tim Walroth evades his Anderson opponent, and b. prepares to pass. c. Anderson ball-carrier brought down by HCAA All-Star Tom Bolser. d. Bill Moores takes the offensive Homecoming, the year's first major social event, marked a turning point in Highlander life. School spirit awoke with Pep Week's Sneaker Day, and peaked at Friday morning's pep rally. Weeks of labor by class members climaxed in float competition that night, based on the theme, "Everyone's Gone to the Moon," with Seniors taking first place. Jerri Truitt was crowned Queen, to reign the next evening at the dance "Moondust."

a. Mike Basler gets the jump by a hand. b Driving hard, Jan Sander breaks for the basket. c. A great leap nets Mike Basler two points. d. Rick Timmons shoots a foul shot
e. Jeff Holmes rolls it off his fingers and scores

Bowing only to Anderson in regular season play, Coach Steve Moore's Highlanders won the HCSL American Division crown in basketball for the third straight season, going on to intra-city play. Oak Hills bested both Courter Tech and McNicholas before its loss to Taft slammed the lid on the Scots' winning ways. The Highlanders finished their cage season nineteen and two overall.

a. Mike Basler and adversaries await a rebound. b Fastbreak results in an easy lay-up for Bob Evans. c Jump ball controlled by Mike Basler Oak Hills' hoop squad, second-seeded in the city for most of the season, came out on top in eighteen of twenty games played by strategic use of its first-rate, tightly-knit defense. Recovering from their first and only defeat, the Highlanders bounced back to beat Wyoming in the league game of the year. The road to victory was then easy enough for the Scots to claim the HCSL title for their own. Heading nervously into preliminary state play, Oak Hills succumbed to defeat in the third round, bowing out gracefully with its long string of victories. Senior co-captains Mike Basler and Jan Sander led the big push which gained momentum throughout the season and put several players such as Jeff Holmes, Tim Walroth, and sophomore Fred Rayhle into the limelight. For his efforts, Coach Moore was named the American Division Coach of the year.

highlanders capture 19-2 record

a. A well timed jump by Fred Rayhle catches his Mt. Healthy opponent off guard. b. Jan Sander outwits two Reading players and gets off a shot c. A quick jump, a flick of the wrist and Bob Evans drops the ball through the net. d. Jan Sander, moving downcourt, dodges his man

baseball

a Tom Bolser makes ready for the play at first. b. As teammates look on, Danny Goodfriend tries for a hit

The 1970 Oak Hills baseball squad's opening weeks, although plagued by foul weather, provided a proving ground for the revamped team. Making up for graduation losses, Andy Mitchell, Jim Heis, and Tom Hesketh filled the pitching spot well. Tom Bolser found a new home at first base and, accompanied by Tom Rothwell and Jeff Weddle, returning lettermen Dan Goodfriend and Harold Thompson supplied the initial hitting power to earn superior batting averages and to pace Oak Hills batters. With such skill, drive and determination brought out by Coach Donn Coates, the Highlanders shot off to a winning start, working up to a victory streak of seven games, which was temporarily broken by Anderson. Oak Hills bounced back, however, to enjoy an overall victorious season.

a. Bruce Tabar swings through a Mt. Healthy pitch. b. Coach Donn Coates and umpire survey the field as pitcher Wayne Heintz winds up. c. Dan Goodfriend artfully dodges a low, inside pitch. d. Tom Bolser drives one down the third base line

track

a. Summoning superhuman strength, Denny Betz prepares to throw. b John Delassandro stretches lithely, and successfully clears the bar. c. Jay Van Winkle awaits the starting gun

cindermen take county title

Coach Robert Yung's 1970 Highlander track team, powered almost solely by the untied strength of its distance and field events men, seemed to stand little chance in any competition. But even to Coach Yung's surprise, the cindermen ran away with every meet they entered. Backed by the performances of record-breaking senior Gary Kurtz in the mile relay, shotputters Denny Betz and Art Couch, and distance men Mike Smith and Greg Martz, the Oak Hills trackmen took the county relays at Harrison, besting top league rivals Colerain and Mt. Healthy to become the 1970 Hamilton County track champions. To have gone this far shows great effort on the part of both varsity and reserve men, boosted by increased student support.

a. Dan Jacobs, far left, gets off to a fast start. b. Don Brvan, baton in hand, runs his leg of the relay c. Putting out a final effort, Jay Van Winkle heads for the tape

tennis

a. Dave Schneider stretches for a backhand shot. b. Ed Lepolt concentrates on his return volley. c. Paul Gerth exhibits his serving form. d. Smashing forehand return by Jim Gray

swan song

As the 1969-70 Caledonian slowly sinks into the sunset, thoughts come to mind of the many hours of arduous toil and effort put forth by our editors and staff, along with assistances granted and courtesies extended by our numerous friends. It is here, in our last, shining, glorious hour, that these gracious benefactors are brought to the fore and appropriately honored. They include:

Advisor: Mr. John Obermeyer
Opening: Tana Casper
Design: Sue Bedard
Underclass: Sue Behrens
Seniors: Larry Fuell
Organizations: Nancy Schlensker
Athletics: Kent England
Copy and Index: Linda Zimmerman
Business Advisor: Mr. Nicholas Wolf
The Business Staff

Thanks are also due to the Osborne Photographic Laboratories, the American Yearbook Company, Mr. Dick Cunniën, representative, the Audio-Visual Department, Mr. Bernard Hiles, the Art Department, and to the part-time assistance of Mr. Douglas J. Crockett, D.P.S. Thanks also go to the Administration, for allowing us to reveal the uncut, uncensored version, and to you, the student body, for being either intelligent enough or gullable enough to purchase a copy. This book is intended to serve as an experiment; to judge student acceptance of advanced design techniques and modern yearbook theory; as such we invite your comments and criticism. Thank you, and to quote Tiny Tim, "God bless you, everyone!"

Brooke Swearingen
Editor-in-Chief
